

Beekman Arms

Circa 1700

"Oldest Hotel in America"

Rhinebeck, New York

Advancing years add lustre to this early stage-coach stop. This famous Inn has catered to the traveling public since 1700 and has entertained General Washington, LaFayette and many Presidents including F.D.R., who campaigned regularly from the Inn's porch. Today it is one of the finest Restaurants in the Hudson Valley.
