CANDIDATE STATEMENT

(File on the tenth day BEFORE primary, convention or election.)

SECTION 323, ELECTION LAW

§ 323. Times for filing statements required by article; general provisions. 1. The times for filing the statements required by this article shall be as follows:

- a. A first statement shall be filed on the tenth day next preceding the election, primary election or convention to which it relates.
- b. A second statement which, except as provided in paragraph c hereof shall be the final statement, shall be filed within twenty days next succeeding the election, primary election or convention to which it relates.
- c. If the statement filed as prescribed by paragraph b does not particularize, constitute or represent the termination of the activities of a political committee, candidate or person to which or whom this article is applicable and a complete payment of all liabilities of such committee, candidate or person in connection therewith, a final statement shall be filed upon the happening thereof, but in any event, a statement shall be filed on the second day of January of each year succeeding the election, primary election or convention to which it relates or, if such day be a holiday or the first day of the week, then on the next succeeding day, covering the period up to and including the last day of the preceding year.

- 2. Unless otherwise provided, each statement shall cover the period up to and including the day next preceding the day herein specified for the filing thereof.
- 3. It shall not be necessary to itemize in any statement the data previously reported in any prior statement but each statement shall include a summary of all receipts, expenditures and liabilities and other particulars reported in any previous statements.

4. A statement shall be deemed properly filed when deposited in an established post-office within the prescribed time, duly stamped, registered and directed to the officer with whom or to the board with which the statement is required to be filed, but in the event it is not received, a duplicate of such statement shall be promptly filed upon notice by such officer or such board of its non-receipt.

5. Each statement shall be preserved by the officer with whom or the board with which it is required to be filed for a period of three years from the date of filing thereof and it shall constitute a part of the public records of such officer or board and shall be open to public inspection.

SECTION 322, ELECTION LAW

§ 322. Statements of campaign receipts, expenditures and contributions other than by a political committee.

1. Any candidate for election to public office, or for nomination for public office at a primary election or convention, or for election to a party position at a primary election, shall file sworn statements, as prescribed by section three hundred twenty-three, setting forth the particulars specified by section three hundred twenty-one, as to all moneys or other valuable things, paid, given, expended or promised by him to aid his own nomination or election, or to promote the success or defeat of a political party, or to aid or influence the nomination or election or the defeat of any other candidate to be voted for at the election or primary election or at a convention, including contributions to political committees, officers, members or agents thereof, and of moneys or other valuable things received by or promised to him to be used for any of the purposes above specified, except that such statements need not be filed by a candidate for party position at a primary election if he expended nothing or his only expenditures were for personal expenses, as hereinafter defined, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars.

2. Any person, other than a candidate, who to promote the success or defeat of a political party, or to aid or influence the election or defeat of a candidate for nomination at a primary election or convention, or of a candidate for any party position to be voted for at a primary election, directly or indirectly, shall give, pay, expend, contribute or promise any money or other valuable thing, except to the chairman, treasurer or a member of a political committee or to an agent duly authorized thereto in writing by such committee, or to a candidate or agent of such candidate duly authorized thereto in writing by the candidate, or except for personal expenses as hereinafter defined, shall file sworn statements, as prescribed by section three hundred twenty-three, setting forth as to such money or thing the particulars specified by section three hundred twenty-one.
